

Nearly three-quarters of the world's population lives below the global mean GDP per capita.

GDP per capita, PPP (constant 2011 international $, thousands), 2017

Countries, scaled by total population

